XIV. Applications dated the 18th December 1917 and 17th January 1918, from Messrs. A. S. Murthi Rao and B. Krishnamurthi Rao, for one of the two undermentioned sites for locating a Weaving Factory.

(i) Site to the south of Chamarajapuram Railway Station.

(ii) Site to the east of the land granted to Vyasarayaswami Matt in Weavers' lines.

Resolved that neither of the sites be made available.

XV. Application dated the 17th November 1917, from Jamna Bai and Rupa Bai applying for Trust land measuring 645 square yards in Block No. 81.

Resolved that the land be sold at Re. 1 per square yard.

XVI. Remission of interest of 5 pies made out to be due from Palace Sepoy Javara on account of loan Order No. 386.

May be remitted.

XVII. Petition dated the 1st December 1917, from Chamaraja Urs stating that he has sold to one Subbamma, his property No. 9, Fort Mohalla, for the improvement of which he obtained a loan of Rs. 350 from the Trust Board and requesting that the future instalments due on the above account may be recovered from the said Subbamma.

Resolved that the transfer be approved, subject to the strict understanding that the liability of the original holder, Mr. Chamaraja Urs to the Trust Board shall continue irrespective of the transfer, till the loan is repaid in full.

XVIII. Consideration of revised alternative estimates for Rs. 887 and Rs. 725, for improving the frontage of the Basthi temple on Syyaji Rao road.

Resolved that the revised estimate for Rs. 725 be approved.

XIX. Letter No. 124, dated the 24th January 1918, from the Executive Engineer, Sanitary Division, Bangalore, intimating that plumber Puttananjappa was finally relieved on the afternoon of 14th January 1918.

Resolved that the services of the plumber be transferred permanently to the Public Works Department, as his services are no longer required by the Board, waiving the claim for the refund of his training charges.

XX. Application dated the 8th December 1917, from Mr. A. Sattar Sait, requesting that in calculating the cost of the site sold to him under Trust Board's Resolution No. XXI, dated the 27th August 1917, the allowance of 15 per cent paid for the compulsory nature of acquiring the said site may not be taken into account.

Resolved that the applicant's prayer be not granted, as the Board cannot afford to forego any portion of the cost that it has actually incurred for acquiring the land in question.

T. LAKSHMANA RAO,
Chairman.
